Born and raised in Fort Worth, Texas, Chef Jon Bonnell grew up hunting, fishing and cooking with his parents and family – his childhood pastimes would soon become his culinary inspirations.

After graduating from Vanderbilt University in 1994, Jon taught science and math for two years before pursuing his love for cooking and enrolling in the New England Culinary Institute (NECI) in Montpelier, Vermont. During his tenure at NECI, Jon completed a six-month culinary internship at Mr. B's Bistro in the historic New Orleans French Quarter. In 1997, Jon graduated from NECI and returned to his beloved hometown of Fort Worth where he honed his cooking skills at local, upscale restaurants.

In 2001, Jon opened his own signature restaurant, Bonnell's Fine Texas Cuisine. Jon's numerous accolades and honors include three stints cooking at the prestigious James Beard House in New York City, winning Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence every year since 2004 and having one of the highest Zagat ratings in the state of Texas

Established as one of the foremost experts in fine wild game, Jon can win over even the biggest skeptic by dispelling myths and serving the best-prepared and most flavorful wild game. Donated by Bonnell's Restaurant Group www.bonnellsrestaurantgroup.com

13. Custom 2026 DU Artist of the Year Print "Lift" by Stephany Kuchera:

Lift is a striking painting that captures the powerful moment a drake blue-winged teal bursts into flight, with water splashing beneath its wings in vivid, lifelike detail. Created by Stephany Kuchera in her debut as Ducks Unlimited's First Female Artist of the Year, this piece reflects both her deep appreciation for wildlife and her talent for dynamic composition. The painting is presented on canvas and includes a custom frame adorned with a DU Artist of the Year title plate.

Stephany personally added an original hand painted "remarque" to this print featuring a small sitting blue wing teal.

In addition to being the first female DU artist of the year Stephany is also a native Texan and avid waterfowler. She grew up in Columbus, Texas, which she describes as "a small town on I-10".

From the Artist: "I started working on the painting in summer of 2024 when I was 38 weeks pregnant. Then, after I had Henry in late June, I worked on it throughout July and into August. I poured a lot of tears into it; it wasn't easy to paint, to take care of my baby boy, and to take care of my daughter all at the same time. I paint in oil, and it's a slow process—anywhere from 100 to 200 hours to finish a painting".

16. Arkansas Waterfowl Hunt for 4 People with East Lake Supper Club:

Experience two days of fully guided Arkansas waterfowl hunting in the heart of some of the country's most storied duck country. Based out of Clarendon, Arkansas, along the White River at East Lake, this hunt gives you access to thousands of acres of private property across a variety of prime waterfowl habitats, including sloughs, agricultural fields, and flooded timber. This trip will be taken during the 2027-2028 season.

Your experienced guides will scout and hunt multiple properties to put you on the ducks. We consistently shoot birds and, depending on conditions and the timing of your hunt, will make every effort to tailor the experience toward the type of hunt you want. Whether you're looking for a classic flooded-timber hunt or chasing your kid's first wood duck, we'll do our best to make it happen.

This is an authentic duck-camp experience built around good hunting, good food, and good company. We typically cater to private members and corporate groups and pride ourselves on creating a relaxed, friendly, family-style atmosphere. We provide lodging at the camp, including one bunk room and two private rooms. The accommodations are comfortable and perfectly suited for a hunting trip.

Meals can be prepared at camp, and we'll be happy to cook for your group. For those who want to experience the local duck-hunting culture, there are also plenty of restaurants and social opportunities in the area. The Clarendon/Stuttgart area is home to legendary waterfowl destinations including Mack's Prairie Wings, RNT and Chêne Gear, making a trip into town part of the Arkansas duck-hunting experience for many guests. We will also provide alcoholic beverages and will get your preferences before the trip.

This Waterfowler's dream hunt includes:

- 2 days of fully guided duck hunting
- Access to thousands of acres of private waterfowl habitat
- 2 nights of hunting-camp lodging
- Meals prepared at camp
- Alcoholic beverages based on guest preferences
- Professional guide services
- Bird cleaning and processing assistance

Check out the Outfitter Here

Not included: Arkansas hunting license and required stamps, waders, transportation to and from Arkansas, ammunition, and guide/staff gratuities. Hunters should bring their own waders. Your hunt must be booked within 12 months of purchase. The following season's calendar is currently open for booking, providing the best opportunity for date selection. Some dates during the current season may be unavailable at the time of booking, but every effort will be made to accommodate the winner. The further in advance you book, the better your selection of dates will be. To provide the best possible hunting, individual properties are generally hunted no more than two consecutive days before being given adequate time to rest. This allows our guides to continually rotate properties and scout for the best opportunities throughout the season.

21. 2 Person Guided Quail Hunt with Cline Strickland of Cline Kennels:

Step into a true North Texas wingshooting tradition with this donated half-day quail hunt for two hunters near Boyd, TX, generously provided by guide Cline Strickland — and featuring some of the finest pointing dogs in this part of the country.

These aren't just good bird dogs — they're elite, hard-charging pointers with the nose, range, and style. Watching them work native cover, lock up staunch on a covey, and hold steady while the birds erupt into flight is an experience in itself, every bit as memorable as the shooting. You'll cover ground in comfort aboard a custom-built quail hunting buggy, designed to get you into position quickly while keeping the focus on the dog work and the flush.

When the hunt is done, kick back and let someone else handle the rest — bird cleaning is provided, so you walk away with table-ready quail.

What's Included:

- Half-day guided quail hunt for two hunters
- Top-tier pointing dogs and an experienced guide
- Transportation via custom quail hunting buggy
- Bird cleaning service after the hunt

What Hunters Need to Bring:

- Valid Texas hunting license, Shotgun ammunition, Shotgun (20 gauge or smaller preferred)
